

ARTIST DYER'S WIFE AND CHILD, INSANE, GIVEN NEW GUARDIAN

G. C. Warner Is Appointed to Take Charge of Estate of Widow and Daughter.

Justice Garavan in the Supreme Court today appointed George Collins Warner, a New York attorney, the committee of the person and estate of Mary Janet Anthony Dyer, widow of Clifford Dyer, the American artist, who made his home abroad for many years and who died Jan. 26 last in Munich, Germany. Warner is also made committee of the person and estate of Stella Anthony Dyer, daughter of the dead artist.

Both mother and daughter are incompetents and confined in the Dr. Wuerzburger Sanatorium at Herzogenhoe, Bavaria, according to the petition filed by Warner asking for the appointment. The petition recites both mother and daughter are hopelessly insane, and were decreed incompetent to manage their persons and estates by the Imperial Royal District Court at Esch, Austria-Hungary, Dec. 15, 1909. This same court, according to the petition, also appointed Clifford Dyer, the husband and father, the committee of the persons and estates of the incompetents. The artist died in such capacity until his death. A statement from the Deputy United States Consul at Munich is included in the petition, to the effect that the bills of the incompetents have not been paid for the last six months. Warner asserts the only living relatives of the incompetents are cousins, residents of Tennessee, Indiana and Virginia, who have not been actively interested in the affairs of either mother or daughter. Warner also says he is the husband of a niece of the dead artist and he is deeply interested in the two incompetents. He says he is in possession of several valuable paintings given him by Dyer when on a visit years ago, to the artist at his studio in Munich, and also that the artist gave him other paintings while in France. A $10,000 life insurance policy on the life of the deceased artist also is in the possession of Warner, he states in his petition. This policy is made payable to the widow. There are large real estate holdings in the outskirts of Chicago owned by the widow, according to the petition. There is $2,500 held in trust for the widow by the Thrift Trust Company of Valparaiso, Ind., according to the petition. Warner was required to furnish a bond of $25,000. He is an executor and a trustee of the last will of the deceased artist.

NOW THE AUTO RAISES PRICES OF OUR SHOES.

Eating Up All Leather in the Land in Its Construction and Shortening Footwear Supply.

CHICAGO, July 19.—Shoes of all grades are to be raised in price, and according to Chicago dealers the automobile is to blame for the increase. Shoes which have been purchased in the past for $5 will cost this fall $6. The advance in all lines will be similar, about 20 per cent, it is said.

"Since Jan. 1, 1908," said one dealer today, "the price of leather has increased 22 per cent. The price of shoes has been raised from time to time to keep pace with the increased cost of production, but now another good substantial boost must be made in the price, and we have notified our patrons. The principal cause for the advance is the popularity of the automobile. It is not generally known how many styles of leather are used daily in the manufacture of the automobile but it is something enormous."

What It Was.
(From the Post Office Post.)
"He seems to possess a great deal of personal magnetism."
"That isn't personal magnetism."
"What do you call it?"
"Merely a willingness to have the waiter hand him all the checks."

VANISHING SUFFRAGIST JUMPS A THREE WEEKS' BOARD BILL AT ASBURY

Daughter of "Rich Woman"
Skips Just as She Did
From This City.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 19.—Miss Geraldine Wingate, lecturer, writer and intense suffragist, who says her mother is a rich woman at Beechhurst, L. I., and who left New York suddenly, owing money, has departed from Asbury Park similarly. The proprietor of a hotel at No. 100 Third avenue wants to collect a three-weeks' board bill, and Miss Amy Hickman, a stenographer, says she also has an unpaid account against the suffragist. Before Justice Borden Miss Wingate promised to pay the hotel bill by Tuesday, but didn't. Considerable mystery attaches to the young woman. She paid some New York accounts with checks made out to "Alice F. Lane." She is the editor of the Historical Suffragist Magazine, a periodical that has not yet appeared. Miss Hickman says Miss Wingate told her that her mother's home was in Allenhurst.

Despatches from Chicago report that a Miss Geraldine Wingate of New York was arraigned there early last spring on a charge of passing bad checks.

T. R. MEN ANXIOUS ABOUT DENEEN'S STAND.

CHICAGO, July 19.—Whether Gov. Deneen will support President Taft or Col. Roosevelt was at the Roosevelt headquarters to-day admittedly the most important question affecting the third party movement, so far as Illinois is concerned.

Upon it will depend largely, it was said, the question whether a third party ticket is to be put out in Illinois or whether Col. Roosevelt's name alone is to be submitted to voters as an independent candidate.

Senator Joseph M. Dixon, who already had sent word to Chicago that a candidate for Governor favorable to Col. Roosevelt was desired, was said to have sent further messages urging a third State ticket.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 19.—In reply to a letter received this morning from Medill McCormick, Gov. Deneen set 10 A. M. Monday as a time to meet the Roosevelt party committee appointed for the purpose of settling upon the Republican State officials who are candidates for election and ascertaining whether they will support Taft or Roosevelt. Gov. Deneen has given no indication of what his answer will be.
